ART, ANYONE ?

“Every year, El Dorado County Fair receives a variety of art submissions from throughout the state,” said Jody Gray, El Dorado County Fair CEO. “Amateurs and professionals showcase their talents hoping to earn a coveted blue ribbon.”

Art aficionados and casual browsers will enjoy visiting the Corker Building from June 18-21 to view all types of media from photography to pen and ink drawings. Many of the entries are from artists who enjoy their craft and simply want to share their work with others, said Gray. Some of them, though, may be ready to be discovered.

“We don’t track whether our artists have sold their work after the fair, but we are certain that many of our artists have the talent to go beyond the blue ribbons that they win.”

Fairgoers who come for the art are sure to stay for the many other entertainment opportunities at this year’s El Dorado County Fair, including listening to live music throughout the four-day event, sipping award-winning wines under shaded arbors, and attending Master Gardener Demonstrations.
