Calling All Entries for the El Dorado County Fair

Enter Often, Enter Early – You Have What It Takes!

Placerville, CA (March 10, 2010) – Has your child painted the most beautiful and insightful self-portrait ever? Is it getting just a tad embarrassing to hear your neighbors gush on about your beautiful roses? Do you have a knack for sheep shearing, tomato growing, or photo taking? If so, there's a place for you at the El Dorado County Fair, coming June 17-20 to the fairgrounds in Placerville.

“This is a chance to showcase our heritage, our hobbies, talents, and local industry, says Jody Gray, the fair’s chief executive officer. “That’s the beauty of a county fair, everyone is welcome and encouraged to participate. You don’t need to be a professional photographer or chef, for instance, to display your work. There are hidden gems—award-winning gems—all over this county, I’m sure, just waiting to be shared and appreciated.”

This year’s theme, “A World of Fun at the El Dorado County Fair,” offers residents the opportunity to take the ultimate “faircation.” Themed areas of popular vacation destinations will be featured, ranging from Graceland to Hawaii and Mardi Gras to Mexico. “Faircation” describes a wave of frugal families trading a week at the beach for trips to the wheelbarrow races, the demolition derby, the carnival, and now a mini tour of the world—without ever leaving home!,” says Gray.

How to Enter

From digital photography to jelly, jam, or salsa making...from plein air painting to singing...team sorting to cultural dancing...and wine making to quilting; the El Dorado County Fair offers hundreds of opportunities for children and adults to showcase their talents...and just plain have fun!
