

For Immediate Release

June 5, 2011

Media Contact: Jody Gray, El Dorado County Fair CEO at 530.621.5860 or Suzanne Wright Suzanne@eldoradocountyfair.org

High resolution images available at www.flickr.com/photos/42335321@N00/

More information: www.eldoradocountyfair.org

Defender of Truth, Justice and Truckin' Declares War

Monstertruckin' Otis Takes on "The Russian Wolf" as Sacramento Wrestling Federation Brings "Hangtown Showdown" to the El Dorado County Fair

Placerville, CA (June 5, 2011) – Monstertruckin' Otis and "The Russian Wolf"—two hulking guys with a long and storied past—face off in round number three as the Sacramento Wrestling Federation brings "Hangtown Showdown" to the El Dorado County Fair. It'll be a two hour high adrenaline rush with eight intense matches featuring 20 wrestlers.

A trailer park superstar from Branson, Missouri, Monstertruckin' sees himself as a defender of truth, justice and truckin'. Insult the "U.S. of A." and Otis is likely to call it an act of war. So, you can only imagine how Otis felt when "The Russian Wolf" Alexis Darevko rudely interrupted the ring announcer during a match in February by blasting the Russian National Anthem. The stage was set for mayhem.

The Russian Wolf, who is vehemently opposed to all things American, was met by a chorus of boos as he walked to the ring with a chain in hand. He launched into verbal assault on the crowd and delivered a drop kick to Otis's knee. Darevko worked the knee for most of the match, ultimately slapping on a figure-four leg lock. As the crowd got into it with chants of "U.S.A...U.S.A.," Otis mounted a comeback, hitting the Russian with two Truckin' splashes and the Monster drop for the win at the eight minute mark.

Now, Darevko realizes that Otis is one big stone (more like a boulder really) in his path to Russian dominance in the Sacramento Wrestling Federation. And, it's something he plans to undo with a vengeance in Placerville. We'll see how that goes.

Sacramento native Josh Edlow spearheads the Sacramento Wrestling Federation. Often featured on local radio and television, Edlow is well known in the community as an award-winning business manager, lifelong student, and committed family man.

“We are excited to bring our brand of entertainment to El Dorado County.” Edlow said. “This will be our first venture into Placerville, and I cannot think of a better way to debut than to offer our event as part of the county fair. Everyone involved is excited to be a part of the festivities.”

The Sacramento Wrestling Federation’s “Hangtown Showdown” comes to the El Dorado County Fair on Thursday, June 16 at 7pm in the Grandstands.

Tickets are $15 for adults and $9 juniors, fair admission is included.

Here’s the match card in order of appearance:

TAG TEAM CHAMPIONSHIP MATCH
Pink Mink Inc. vs. The Reno Scum

INTERNATIONAL WARFARE PREVIEW MATCH
El Chupacabra vs. Sheik Khan Abadi

SINGLES MATCH
Monstertruckin’ Otis vs. “The Russian Wolf” Alexis Darevko

SINGLES MATCH
Antonio “The Riv” Rivera vs. Jeckles the Jester

Check www.sacramentowrestling.com for additional matches to be announced soon.

The 2011 El Dorado County Fair, themed “Rockin’ & Wranglin’”, will take place Thursday through Sunday, June 16 to 19 in Placerville. For more information, visit eldoradocountyfair.org or call the Fair office at 530.621.5860.

###