Fair is entertaining! All four days of fair will showcase FREE on-grounds entertainment for you and your family!

Placerville, CA (April 26, 2011) -- Wild About Monkeys” is a captivating live animal production, which showcases the unique personality, talent, and behavior of each monkey in the presentation. These US born or rescued monkeys will delight audiences of all ages with their antics. In the Plaza, Kevin, Martina and their charming primates will enrich your knowledge about the relationships and bonds that exist between animal and man. They are just too cute!

Let the “Movie Stunt Adventure Show” take you away to Hollywood. This death-defying, high-octane adrenaline rush attraction is full of stunt jumps and falls performed by a professional stunt crew. This show will occur five times a day, with one show per day featuring the “Full View Water Torture Cell Escape.” Between shows, you can be the star by signing up (fee required) to participate in stunt training. Be the James Bond, Jason Bourne or Lara Croft you were meant to be and amaze your friends!

The Rawhide Express solar powered train conducted by Engineer Ken and sponsored by Pacific, Gas & Electric Company is an entertaining train ride that will give you a fair tour like none other! All aboard!

The Clown of Many Faces will amuse you with her crazy antics and her various modes of transportation throughout the grounds.

Balloon Becky can craft fabulous balloon creations that will amaze you. The fair parking staff will be modeling some of her art when you arrive.

The Amazing Harmonatras will wow the kids with their interactive musical, comedy act located in the Clifton and Warren Kid’s Corral. Following each show, the Harmonatras will conduct kid's contests like the egg toss and wet sponge relay, so plan on staying for the fun!

The Scouts of the Cascades on the Bud Light Plaza Stage will welcome you to the fair with their old fashioned salute to songs that celebrate the life and work of the American cowboy and the old west.

Don't forget to sit in on the "Mistress of Mesmerism," Susan Rosen shows. This is Susan's 18th year at our fair entertaining and "mesmerizing" the audience on the Wells Fargo Stage.

Gary Gilligan "Official Chef of the Fair," presents cooking demonstrations on the Kitchen Craft Stage. Chef Gary also offers participation classes, so check the schedule for times. His recipes, cooking tips, not to mention the tastings are such yummy treats!

"Cool" things happen when the Fire Department is around. Find them in the Plaza with lots of fun family activities!

The Sheriff's Department will be in the Clifton and Warren Kid's Corral with various vehicles to explore. On Saturday and Sunday at 2pm they will perform K9 demonstrations. These dogs love to show spectators what they do when trying to stop criminals.

Step back in time as Blacksmiths from the California Blacksmith Association demonstrate how knives, hatchets, kitchen utensils and other everyday items were made. Demonstrations will draw lots of excitement as you hear the ringing of the anvil up close and personal. Find them in front of the livestock barns.

Then there are animals! 4H, FFA, Grange and Independent kids will display: Sheep, Goats, Swine, Cattle, Poultry, Rabbits and Cavies. What's a cavy you ask? Come to the fair and find out!

Competitive exhibits have been a part of fairs for 200 years. Who will take home the "Blue Ribbons" in everything from Art to Livestock to Wine?
